

Gift of light on the longest night

Vietnamese dancing at Federation Square during the switch-on celebration of the Gift of Light, which features light-inspired artworks from nine cultural communities. Last night's launch coincided with the winter solstice. It is part of Light in Winter, a festival directed by Robyn Archer. It runs until July 5.

PICTURE: CRAIG SILLITOE

Media Coverage from The Age, Sunday 22 June 2008, p.2